The June Bride II.—THE MARRIAGE LICENSE By Eleanor Schorer

"S'Matter, Pop?"

By C. M. Payne.

Heard in Jokeland.

Bill-Aren't you drinking a little more than usual? Sam-Yes, my wife has a cold in the head and can't smell a thing.

The Papers Say By John L. Hobble

AN killed by truck horse." tions to the candidate who agrees t With so many opportuni- sue them.

"Police get robber's loot." This is not customary. It should have been

"Man drops dead after climbing elevated steps." He hadn't trained properly. His highest previous climb was up the Metropolitan Tower.

Two men were reported drowned in one of the water holes in the pavement on Broadway. This is no doubt on exaggeration. It probably wasn't

"Man chokes to death on steak." It seems that he ordered only a 83 stock, but the waiter made a mistake and brought one that was too would go a long way toward paying large for a single mouthful.

divided equally.

more than one boy.

ried it along.

the national debt.

just plain pulled.

"Chinese graft halts foreign loan." limousine, a man shows very little pride in dying at the hands That's the result of teaching nesdern civilization to the Chinese.

"Strikebreakers stoned in Illinois." One of the candidates has so many Deal that it looks like a Goose Egg.

some one puts a brick on you.

CEE, COSH,

JUST DREAMED

PELL ON ME

 bureau (a very bleak place in reality) seems a bower of roses liftered with songbirds. The very businesslike slips of paper are things of

OF WEALTH, KID. OF WEALTH

ROUND June-tide, when young folks' thoughts turn to love and near-, beauty and wonder, telling of a thousand dreams of happiness. The face of riage, all the world is transformed. And the marriage licens he clerk in the cage softens into a pudgy, smiling, dimpled cupid counte-

ELEANOR BCHORER.

Just for Fun.

First Hobe—T. R. says the country's going to the bad. Second Hobe—Yep. Too many free libraries and not enough free longs.

The Day's Good Stories

Their First Chance.

Circulation of Oratory.

A Question of Values. JAM always did attract little Arthur, and he persisted in helping himself, in spite of in mother's orders.

One day the caught him in the act, the few per in one hand and a large speen in the other. "Arthur, you naughty boy!" she said seetly. "Why do you always disobey me and steel the jam?"

to be found in large numbers in explained the led, "and I was just wanderlied early Missouri, the black, the it's sice enough to be whipped for!"—Asswers.

No Terrors for Them.

Both in the Same Vote.

(by The Press Publishing Co.)
(The New York World.)

By George McManus

Dreams That Come True

THAT Y A SURE SIGN TO GET A JOB AS A CONTRACTO

BULDING FALLING

DOES IT SIGNIFY

ARE GOING TO HAVE

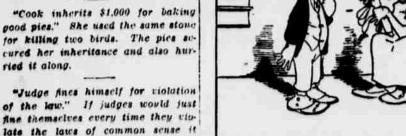

RESPONSIBILITY ON YOUR HANDS

PUTURE !

BELIEVE IN

The Switzer Is Here

in life was that she didn't marry.

Unselfish woman! Always taking Switzerland of emigrants from the blame for the mistakes of some against $3,000 in 1910. Of the 1911 emition of the Swiss emigrants (no particular record being kept of foreigners, the "Man loses leg on Taxi ride." It majority of whom are Italians) was as doesn't say whether it was cut off or follows: The United States, 3,99; Argentina, 207; Canada, 227; Brazil, 118; "Swindler who got $1,500,000 sen- Peru, Colombia, Chill and Panama. Of my education?" pirl and all that, but we would sug-

"Harvestly stock goes up after one-armed men. It is believed to be the with high. Circumstances prevent our form our house?"

The stock goes up after one-armed men. It is believed to be the with high. Circumstances prevent our with high. Circumstances prevent our seeing each other at present. What shall i do?"

The stock goes up after one-armed men. It is believed to be the with high. Circumstances prevent our seeing each other at present. What shall i do?"

The stock goes up after one-armed men. It is believed to be the with high. Circumstances prevent our seeing each other at present. What shall i do?"

The stock goes up after one-armed men. It is believed to be the with high. Circumstances prevent our seeing each other at present. What shall i do?"

The stock goes up after one-armed men. It is believed to be the with high. Circumstances prevent our seeing each other at present. What shall i do?"

The stock goes up after one-armed men. It is believed to be the with high. Circumstances prevent our seeing each other at present. What shall i do?"

The stock goes up after one-armed men. It is believed to be the with high. Circumstances prevent our seeing each other at present. What shall i do?"

The stock goes up after one-armed men. It is believed to be the with high. Circumstances prevent our seeing each other at present. What shall i do?"

The stock goes up after one-armed men. It is believed to be the with high. Circumstances prevent our seeing each other at present. What shall i do?"

The stock goes up after one-armed men. It is believed to be the with high. Circumstances prevent our seeing each other at present. What shall i do?"

The stock goes up after one-armed men. It is believed to be the with high. Circumstances prevent our seeing each other at present. What is a shall i do?"

The stock goes up after one-armed men. It is believed to be the with high. Circumstances prevent our seeing each other at present. What is a shall interest our seeing each other at present. What is a shall interest our seeing ea

Betty Vincent Gives Advice on Courtship and Marriage

Girl or College? "J. K." writes: "I am twenty-one and about him a note apologizing for your Make some laughing remark about his about to enter college. But I have also "Q. S." writes: "I am fourteen and share in the quarrel. He will doubtless absent mindedness and the situation will had a good business offer and my my cousin, two years older, asked me be ready to meet you half way. gentina, 207; Canada, 227; Brazil, 118; flances wants me to accept st. Shall I to go to the theatre with him. I de-Australia, 80; Asia, 40; Africa, 36; Mex-teo, 11; the remainder seeking homes in her to wast six years in case I continue Was I wrong, and ought I apologise?"

"G. L." writes: "I corresponded w

"G. L." writes: "I corresponded with me, but recently she has declined to see "Man who stole $100 given thirty clerks, besides a number of nurses, you to do such a thing. As for the long will spend the evening with her. I haven't heard since.

No to your first question. If the girl up to your standards of propriety.

So to your first question. If the girl up to your standards of propriety.

So didn't hear from me. My reply was fended her in any way.

The columns, and asked why you to do such a thing. As for the long will spend the evening with her. I haven't heard since.

How to Find Out You should never applogize for living a girl regularly until about four menths me. Shall I write to her?" about that. Would it be all right for me to except W at shall I do?"

with high. Circumstances prevent our seeing each other at present. What small i do?"

It would be distinctly courteous of you.

Seeing each other at present. What small i do?"

Simil I do?"

You don't know the man well enough love with a young man, but me have side nearest the street. I don't like to himself tells you.

The doubt quite a bit. But he has never told me about quite a bit. But he has never told me about quite a bit. But he has never told me about quite a bit. But he has never told me the cared for me. How shall I know?"

The doubt quite a bit. But he has never told me the cared for me. How shall I know?"

The doubt quite a bit. But he has never told me the cared for me. How shall I know?"

The doubt quite a bit. But he has never told me the cared for me. How shall I know?"

The doubt quite a bit. But he has never told me the cared for me. How shall I know?"

The doubt quite a bit. But he has never told me the cared for me. How shall I know?"

The doubt quite a bit. But he has never told me the cared for me. How shall I know?"

The doubt quite a bit. But he has never told me the cared for me. How shall I know?"

The doubt quite a bit. But he has never told me the cared for me. How shall I know?"

The doubt quite a bit. But he has never told me told me the cared for me. How shall I know?"

The doubt quite a bit. But he has never told me told me the cared for me. How shall I know?"

The doubt quite a bit. But he has never told me told me the cared for me. How shall I know?"

The doubt quite a bit. But he has never told me told me ago. Later she wrote and asked why Certainly, and ask if you have of-to love him. Be sensible and stop quarrelied. How shall I regain his walk that way, but how can

Missouri Wolves.

HREE varieties of wolves were to gray and the coyote or "prairie wolf." Hunting welves was a duty as well as a pastime, for the animals did much damage to stock. Wildeats, catamounts and an occasional lynk were seen, but were not destructive or troublesome. Their raids were usually confined to visits to the chicken coop or the goose pond. Beaver and otter as a pastime, for the animals did much "C. H." writes: "I thought a girl liked | confined to visits to the chicken coop or the goose pond. Beaver and otter were plentiful.

> SCHOOL FOR STAMMERERS. An innovation in Boston school work has been planned in the establishment

Would it be all right for me to excert What shall I do?"

"V. W." writes: "I am very much in of classes for stammerers in the Julia the girl home, as she lives seven miles Write and give her the frank exlove with a young man who has taken Ward Howe Schoolhouse, Roxbury.